(Dear Pelham, I am posting you another booklet as it seems you didn't receive the original one. Best wishes, Michele)

Dear Pelham

My first words must be a tribute to Michael Cole, Living Light's Editor and inspiration since its inception over 20 years ago. Michael not only brought theological insight but also wisdom gained through years of pastoral care. I am sure you join me in thanking him and praying the years ahead will be filled with grace and peace, peppered with the goodness of God.

For me, one of the saddest verses in the Bible is, "In those days the word of the Lord was rare; there were not many visions." (1 Samuel 3:1b). A defunct religious system, impotent to tackle the overwhelming needs of a nation which had lost its way. Wonderfully, God's word came to young Samuel; a prophet was born and a nation restored.

I am convinced of the fundamental importance of regular bible reading, understanding and living out the Word of God. I fear we might be surprised by the number of Christians who rarely read the life-changing message the Bible offers. Here at NCT, we want to elevate and promote daily Bible reading. We sincerely believe Living Light, written by a group of gifted contributors, promotes a healthy personal walk with God. Church growth studies see the centrality of God's word to be a major contributor to a healthy church, offering a powerful witness to our needy world.

Thank you for your financial support for the work of the Nationwide Christian Trust. We would love to make copies of Living Light available to more hospitals, prisons, rehabs and refuges. If you feel able to support, this can be done over the phone with card, or by BACS using the details at the bottom of page 36 (or by posting a cheque although that is the least preferred option). You can call NCT's Pastoral Centre on 01277 367124. Thank you.

We hope you enjoy Living Light's slightly revised format and our new weekly prayer section. Your feedback is welcomed.

Finally, here at NCT, we pray God's richest blessing on your life, bearing much fruit and joy.
